

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Does Just War Exist?:

MOBILIZING FOR WAR & THE HOME FRONT

Converting the Economy

Cost-Plus

From cars to tanks

Liberty Ships

War Production Board

Building an Army

Selective Service vs. Enlistment

African Americans in the Military

Women in the Armed Forces

PROPAGANDA POSTER ANALYSIS

Instructions: Throughout the class, you will be asked to analyze some propaganda posters from World War II. This is the place to do that (except the journal... keep that with your other journals)

Propaganda Poster #1

Who is the intended audience? _____

What is the point of the poster? _____

What stereotypes can you see? Are they good or bad? _____

Propaganda Poster #2

Who is the intended audience? _____

What is the point of the poster? _____

What stereotypes can you see? Are they good or bad? _____

Propaganda Poster #3

Who is the intended audience? _____

What is the point of the poster? _____

What stereotypes can you see? Are they good or bad? _____

JAPANESE INTERNMENT

Round One

Document	Reasons for internment suggested by this document	Evidence from document to support these reasons
Government Newsreel

Hypothesis A: Why were Japanese Americans interned during the Second World War?

(write as a thesis statement CLAIM + SUBCLAIMS):

Round Two

Document	Reasons for internment suggested by this document	Evidence from document to support these reasons
The Munson Report
The Crisis Article

Hypothesis B: Why were the Japanese Americans interned during the Second World War?:

(write as a thesis statement CLAIM + SUBCLAIMS):

Round Three

Document	Reasons for internment suggested by this document	Evidence from document to support these reasons
Korematsu v. United States
Personal Justice Denied

Final Hypothesis: Why were the Japanese Americans interned during the Second World War?:

(write as a thesis statement CLAIM + SUBCLAIMS):

Japanese Internment Notes: