

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

CONFLICT IN VIETNAM

French Colonization:

Gulf of Tonkin:

Document Analysis 1

	What does the writer of the document want?	What is your policy proposal? (After both documents)
Vietnamese Declaration of Independence
Telegram to Harry Truman

Document Analysis 2

	What does the writer of the document want?	What is your policy proposal?
President's Message to Congress
Tonkin Gulf Resolution

Was the United States justified in passing the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution?

Vietnamese Conflict:

Document Analysis (My Lai Massacre Interview):

Take a few minutes and silently write your response to the story read by Mr. Bird. Look at all the beautiful space he gave you on this note sheet... Write a substantial response.

Gallery Walk

Directions: Silently go around the room and look at the exhibit. Using your own words, describe the picture in the boxes below. Explain how the pictures relate to the concepts we discussed last class.

Gun Lady	Swamp Dudes
Hippie	Helmet Bro

ANTIWAR PROTEST

Case Study 1: Protest songs

After listening to the songs and/or reading the lyrics, answer the following questions:

1. What is the attitude towards the Vietnam War? How can we tell (use quotes)?
2. Why do you think the song was written?

War

Vietnam

3. Do you think these songs were more or less effective than other forms of protest against the war (e.g., public demonstrations, civil disobedience)? Be sure to explain your reasoning.

Case Study 2: Kent State University

Directions: As you read the article, answer the following questions.

4. At Ohio's Kent State University in May 1970, four student protestors were shot and killed by _____.
5. What prompted protestors to gather that day?
6. What was unique about the media's role in the Vietnam War? How was this war different than previous wars? (first time in history...)
7. Why do you think college campuses were such hotbeds for demonstrations against the Vietnam War?

VIETNAMIZATION AND THE END TO WAR

Vietnamization

Peace with Honor

How war ended

HOMEWORK (DAY ONE)

Instructions: Due at the start of class next time, write a museum exhibition plaque describing the picture from Vietnam that you were assigned. No one likes to read a lot when they go to an art exhibition, so you are limited to a maximum of 3 sentences. However, use those three sentences to the MAX! Describe what is going on in the picture, as well as how it relates to other events/feelings about the Vietnam War.

